

The Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH) Advanced Certificate in Food Hygiene

Background

This qualification, which was introduced in 1984, has been regularly reviewed and modified to meet the industry's need for a high level practical training programme with external accreditation.

Entry Criteria

Suitable delegates for the course will need to have an analytical approach to food hygiene and will be encouraged to demonstrate how they can influence others and positively encourage good standards.

Objectives of the Course

At the conclusion of the programme the expected learning outcomes are that the student will be able to:

- Guide and advise on the management of food hygiene in a food business.
- Contribute to the management of food hygiene in a wide variety of food business.
- Identify further technical knowledge necessary in complex processes.
- Determine further training requirements.
- Identify areas for legal compliance.
- Determine good practice.
- Design an improvement plan.
- Outline a HACCP type study.
- Promote and encourage good standards of food safety.
- Liaise with enforcement officers.
- Deliver level 1 food hygiene training. *

* The CIEH Advanced Certificate in Food Hygiene is available in conjunction with the CIEH Professional Trainer Certificate. Successful completion of both courses will enable students to deliver the CIEH Foundation Certificate in Food Hygiene.

Programme

The course will be delivered over 7 days.

Course Venue

This programme may be run either on-site or at one of our UK training venues.
